

November 1: Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost (All Saints Day)

“Good stewardship is not conserving and holding, protecting and preserving. Good stewardship is growing, developing, advancing, and building the gifts with which God has blessed us.”
(Kennon L. Callahan)