

June 29: Third Sunday after Pentecost

We are called to do our best to redistribute God's abundance so that all who need help can not only survive but also thrive.