

August 3: Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

How we spend our money reflects our priorities. It is not only voting with our wallets; where we place our treasure reflects our spiritual priorities too.

August 10: Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

The Gospel according to Luke reminds us, “Sell your possessions, and give your money to the poor. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

August 17: Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

Caring for the financial health of your community of faith is not a sprint to be accomplished with one event or one campaign. It is a marathon which is only accomplished over time, by developing relationships, expressing gratitude, and teaching generosity as a spiritual practice.

August 24: Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Feeling anxious, worried or fearful? Giving and gratitude are the antidote for an anxious brain and a news cycle which tells us there is never enough.

August 31: Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

Hospitality is how we show guests that we mean it when we say, You are welcome and a beloved part of the body of Christ.
